3, excluded, on its sweet words hang,
 I dreaming that the rose possesses a thorn that I soon should wish I'd ne'er been born.
 And the honey'd words that through me run music sweet which love so often sing, perished, and left me to weep and mourn.
 And there's left, a bent and broken reed,
 a dream of earthly bliss for ever o'er,
 that can I wish for now but soon to see through those dark mysteries—world's profound where, beyond the vale, earth's joys are every broken heart from sorrow's frow'd.

UNION.

Knowing your deep interest in all that concerns the welfare and advancement of the masses, I should like to ascertain, if possible, that the Rothwells mirror light any of the while other men so willingly join in. It is Messrs. Poulter, Cowey, and others in a group and they keep trying to raise the steam, as the Rothwell men don't "take on." Mr. Cowey expressed himself many a time, as allowing perfect freedom in political and social matters. I feel sure on one occasion, Mr. Hargrave sked, intimated that there was not the slightest in them joining the Union, and not with all this crying forward, and removal of all their employers, Rutwell miners keep alive, and will not join the Union. Will Mr. Peniter, or Mr. Steel, or anybody else, come? If it is a good thing, why don't they are better without it, than why do you join? It is a pass to a lot of people explanation will no doubt do good, and Rutwell men in a better position than they apparently, in the eyes of the leaders of the Association, and of

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.

As Rothwells, we often speak with pride of our high antiquity, and not only is this proved by national history, going back into the times of the Romans, and the Saxons, but occasionally there are finds which lead to the idea that even before the Christians came to the town were occupied by savage tribes. In the year 1884, a few years ago, a discovery was made, which has led to the discovery of a large number of bones, and other remains, which are now in the possession of the Rothwell Museum.

WESLEYAN SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

The annual festival in connection with Wesleyan Sunday School at Rothwell, was celebrated this week, and has been most successful in every respect. Sun was bright and warm, enabling the school and teachers to turn out in the light costumes so closely associated with the anniversary. The committee had invited the Rev. P. N. Andrews, of Halifax, to conduct the Sunday services, he having travel-

THE UNEMPLOYED IN EAST LONDON.—At a time when much thought is being given to this matter, a practical suggestion may be of service. Last month more than 2,500,000 worth of foreign matches purchased by inconsiderate consumers in this country to the great injury of our own working people, so is it that "evil is wrought by want of thought; as we want of heart." If all consumers would purchase Bryant and May's matches, that firm would be enabled to pay 1½d. a week more in wages.

PETITION TO PARLIAMENT.—On Tuesday evening our Member, Mr. Benjamin Pickard, duly presented

WINDSLOW'S SOOTHING BRACE. It will relieve poor sufferers immediately. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to taste, it produces natural, quiet sleep by reducing the chill from pain, and the little child awakes "as bright as a button." It soothes the child, it stiffens the gums, allays all pain, relieves whooping cough, the bowels, and is the best known remedy for dysentery and diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is sold by Medicine dealers everywhere at 10 cts. per bottle.

LOCAL & GENERAL

THE HUSBAND.—It was with a matter of interest to the community that a man of our former years, Mr. J. H. Watson, a well-known and successful business man, and a member of the local community, was found dead in his bed, at his late residence, at the corner of the main road and the railway line, on the morning of the 14th inst. The deceased was a man of about 60 years of age, and was a native of the county of Devon. He was a man of a very quiet and unassuming disposition, and was well known to all who knew him.
